what the movies that families are watching ?

Categories of films that families watch

This visualization shows us the sections of family films that have been rented and how often they are rented and arranged according to the categories and the number of times rented.

what the length of rental duration of these family-friendly movies ?

rental duration of these family-friendly movies compares to the duration that all movies are rented

This shows us the visualization of the family films' sections, the period of their rental, and their division into four ratios

The standard color quartile is shown in red

And I can imagine in blue the extent of the rent

what family-friendly film category ?

family-friendly film category, each of the quartiles

This shows us the perception of sections of family films and their division into ratios and calculating the number of films associated with each section count of rental orders during every month for all the years

This visualization shows the first ten clients who rent movies, and shows us the number of times we rent on the month and year what is the top 10 paying customers, how many payments they made on a monthly basis during 2007 ?

10 paying customers

This visualization shows the first ten clients who rent movies and show us the number of rental and what was paid find out the difference across their monthly payments during 2007 ?

This visualization shows the first ten clients who rent movies, and shows us the number of rental and what was paid and the difference between each row